SCOTT ESCAPES NOOSE THIRD TIME

FRIENDS GET REPRIEVE TO TEST SANITY

Judge Cannot Conduct Hearing Until After Monday, August 3

CLUBWOMEN COME TO AID FINDING OF BROTHER WILL RESULT IN TWO HANGINGS, PROSECUTION SAYS

By Associated Press
Chicago—Almost at the hour of his death march, Russell Scott escaped the gallows early Friday for the second time within a week.

The former Canadian financier, twice reprieved from paying the supreme penalty for the murder of a Chicago drug clerk in a hold up, dodged the noose for the third time less than four hours before he was to have been executed when Judge Joseph B. David granted a stay of execution pending a hearing into his sanity.

A week ago, six hours before he was to hang, Governor Small granted a one week's reprieve which expired Friday morning. Judge David, called out of bed a few hours before the time of the execution, convened a special session of court and granted the stay after Governor Small and the state board of pardons and paroles Thursday night at Springfield refused further clemency.

GALLOWS STILL EMPTY

Friday morning the gallows stood set for springing a week ago trap without its victim and jail officials who had left it standing during the week of grace were considering dismantling it. The sanity hearing will not come for several days. Judge Davis indicating he cannot hear it before Monday, Aug. 3.

Scott's escape from death Friday, like that a week ago, came after he and his relatives virtually had abandoned hope. Thomas Scott, his father, had called at the jail three hours previously to bid him a last farewell, the second such visit in a week.

Thursday new counsel, hastily summoned by Scott's friends, had hurried to Springfield where they met the Governor and board of pardons and represented a plea for a reprieve. The board, however, refused further clemency and Governor Small concurred in the action, pointing out that Scott already had received two reprieves.

On receiving this news which apparently sealed Scott's fate, Mrs. William McGraw and Isobel Hurst, both of Detroit, representing Detroit clubwomen who raised $5,000 for Scott's defense, hastily retained William Scott Stewart, criminal lawyer, who recently successfully defended William Darling Shepherd, accused of the murder of Billy McClintock.

WAKE UP JUDGE

At midnight their last desperate step decided on, Scott's friends and Stewart started their hunt for a judge to issue the stay. Judge David, called from his bed, agreed to call a session of court if his bailiff and clerk could be found. Then, with the minutes ticking away, clerk and bailiff were rushed to the county building where in a dimly lighted courtroom on the tenth floor the hearing was held.

A little group of newspapermen, the judge, the attorneys Scott's friends and his aged father made up the gathering. The petition, signed by Scott's father, recited that the condemned man has become insane since his incarceration 15 months ago in the county jail.

After asking for perfunctory questions, Judge David immediately announced that he would sign the order and within 20 minutes from the time court had been convened, the stay of execution had been granted.

Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, and Scott's prosecutors have maintained throughout the attempts to save him that the finding of his brotherhood will have no effect on Scott's fate but will provide two victims for the gallows instead of one.

"Find Robert Scott," they have told Russell's friends, "and we will hang them both. Under the Illinois law, they are both equally guilty, regardless of who fired the actual shot."

SYNOD FREES CHURCHMAN OF HERESY COUNT

Committee of Ministers and Laymen Backs Madison Presbyterian

Waupaca — Dr. George E. Hunt, pastor of Christ Presbyterian church, Madison, Friday stood clear of all charges of heresy placed against him by a group of clergymen of the Madison Presbytery, following the sustaining of a report made by a committee of 15 ministers and laymen to the Presbyterian Synod of Wisconsin, in session here.

The committee report sustained the findings of the Madison Presbytery, which cleared Dr. Hunt of heresy charges last November. The synod immediately adopted the committee report which censured the Madison group of clergymen for bringing the charges against Dr. Hunt on what is termed insufficient evidence.

Dr. R. J. Aitchison, Poyntette, appearing in the role of prosecutor, declared he believed an appeal would be taken to the Presbyterian assembly in Baltimore. He stated the conference would be held with his associates to determine the further course.

REVIEW APPEAL

The case of Dr. Hunt reached the synod through an appeal by the ministerial group from a decision of the Madison Presbytery clearing the pastor of all charges. A committee was then appointed to review the appeal. Statements of each side were heard and considered together with a reading of submitted briefs. No new testimony was admitted during the brief meeting of the committee, which went into executive session immediately after the hearing. The press was barred from the executive session.

Charges of which Dr. Hunt was freed include:

Affirmation by him of evolution, with a declaration that life developed on earth long before appearance of man; statement that Genesis is a crude, yet noble conception of God, as the Creator, and signature of Dr. Hunt to a petition asking support of Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick in his religious views.

ANTI AIRCRAFT TARGET IS UNDER LOCK AND KEY

Norfolk, Va. — A 50-foot target sleeve with an undisclosed number of holes in it, was held under lock for confidential inspection at the naval base here Friday—and with it the answer to what may happen when battleships meet dirigible.

Thursday the target, resembling a miniature dirigible, trained at the end of a 2,000-foot wire from the dirigible Shenandoah while the anti aircraft guns of the battleship Texas blazed away at it. When the tests were completed the Shenandoah returned from off the Virginia capes, dropped the target at the naval base and it was quickly retrieved and was rushed off in an automobile to the ordnance depot, where it was locked up.

Just how successful the tests were has not been disclosed.

Real Slayer Ill In Port Huron As Brother Waits

By Associated Press
Port Huron, Mich.—Two thrills, both of them believed by officers to be fakes, were added to the unusual efforts being made to save the life of Russell Scott.

The first thrill came when a bottle was picked up in the St. Clair river, containing a note addressed to Russell T. Scott, and purporting to be signed by his brother, Robert.

The second was furnished by Mrs. W. J. Manley, of this city, who telephoned to Chicago early Friday that Robert Scott had been at her home, ill, but had left at 2 o'clock Friday morning alone in an automobile for Chicago to save his brother. Officers are skeptical as to the truth of Mrs. Manley's statement.

Mrs. Manley, who operates an apartment house, was questioned early Friday by officers, after receiving a telephone message from Chicago police to investigate her story.

The story told to one of the officers early Friday by Mrs. Manley is that a man giving the name of "Frank Smith" came to her apartment house Thursday and rented a room. She

BOB JR. DENIES POLITICAL DEAL

LaFollette Says Conclaves Dealt With Issues and Plans of Campaign

Madison—A statement was issued Friday by Robert M. LaFollette denying that matters discussed at the recent political conferences between him and Progressive leaders related to an agreement with regard to future candidacies and political action.

"Certain newspapers carry a statement Friday morning in which they deduce from the fact that I have been in conference with Progressive leaders that a pact has been entered into with regard to candidacies and political action to be taken in the future. I have been brought up in a school of politics in which political deals have been forbidden. I shall adhere to that policy. The conferences in which I have been engaged have dealt exclusively with issues and plans for a campaign for the election of a United States Senator, without regard to candidacies in the future."

THREE RESCUED WHEN DRY LAUNCH BLOWS UP

By Associated Press
Lorain, O.—The government patrol boat, G-2334, one of links in the chain of Lake Erie rum chasers, blew up just outside Lorain harbor shortly after noon Friday.

Three members of the crew aboard at the time were blown from the boat into the water and were rescued by the tug Michigan. None of them was seriously injured. Coast guard officials at the Lorain base said the explosion was accidental and was caused by engine trouble and an ignition which fired the gasoline tanks.

A water hydrant broken by a paving crew at N. Richmond and W. Packard-sts will be moved to the opposite side of the street instead of being replaced in its present location, according to a decision of Appleton water department. Workmen already are busy on this task.

The hydrant was broken beyond repair Wednesday by the steam shovel used in excavating by Simpson-Parker Construction Co. A large boulder was picked up by the shovel and was being swung to one side. It dropped out of the bucket and smashed the hydrant as it stopped. The street was immediately flooded with water and an emergency crew had to be sent to the scene to shut off the valves. The hydrant was damaged beyond repair and the change of location was decided when it was found that entirely new equipment would have to be installed.

FEDERATION WOULD BAR RELIGION FROM SCHOOL

By Associated Press
Lake Geneva—A resolution protesting against religious training and teaching in the public schools was adopted by the Wisconsin State Federation of Labor in annual session here Friday. Other resolutions adopted include those criticizing the board of regents of the University of Wisconsin for accepting a gift of $12,000 from the Rockefeller foundation for scientific research; demanding abolition of spraying machine in the painting industry and recommending that separate labor unions be formed for Negro workers. A proposal to abolish proxy voting in conventions was defeated.

The convention was to terminate with election of officers late Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Manley stated that she then telephoned to Mrs. Isobel Hurst in Chicago and Thomas Scott, father of Russell, that Robert was on his way to Chicago.

Mrs. Manley said that Scott was in that city seriously ill. The call, received by Mrs. Isobel J. Hurst, Detroit clubwoman who came here to work for Russell's reprieve, was made by a Mrs. Manley, who said that Scott was at her home. While officials here feared that the call might be another fraud, Port Huron police started an investigation.

G. O. P. Leaders Get Early Start On Campaign Plans

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Copyright, 1925, by the Post Pub. Co.
Swampscott, Mass. — Politics, particularly the all-important Congressional election of next year, constituted the principal subject of discussion in the conference between President Coolidge, Senator Butler of Massachusetts who is chairman of the Republican national committee, and Senator Curtis of Kansas, who is the Republican leader of the senate.

The Kansas senator knows political conditions in the west. Mr. Butler has been studying them at long range but is preparing for an extensive trip to the middle and far west next month so the conference here was in a sense one of preliminary strategy. CAMPAIGN HAS STARTED

Why should they be planning for an election that does not take place until fifteen months hence? Because in the senate and house, the campaigns already are under way.

Take Massachusetts, for instance, where Mr. Butler who succeeded the late Senator Lodge by appointment was so before the people in 1926. Former Senator David Walsh, Democrat, who was defeated by not much more than 15,000 while President Coolidge swept the state by more than 400,000 majority, is active notwithstanding the fact that he has not announced his candidacy. All Massachusetts takes it for granted he will run and it is no secret to say Mr. Butler is worried about the outcome.

UP FOR REELECTION
Senator Curtis of Kansas also is up for reelection next year. Senator Moses of New Hampshire is a candidate to succeed himself. In New York state there is talk of Al Smith running against Senator Wadsworth. In Maryland, Governor Ritchie, Democrat, is being mentioned frequently as likely to oppose Senator Weller, Republican. Senator Lenroot of Wisconsin, is really in the fray already because of the outcome of the special election this year to elect a successor to the late Senator La Follette depends to some extent what the lines of battle will be in November, 1926.

The republican hold on the United States Senate is not a comfortable one at best. A change in eight or ten seats would mix things up considerably for the Coolidge administration. Mr. Butler, of course, insists that the campaign shall be waged on the basis of upholding Calvin Coolidge. The Democrats may next year be willing to accept that challenge plus the tariff as an issue. In Massachusetts where some textile mills are closing down and decreases in pay are being ordered in others, there is naturally encouragement for the supporters of David Walsh who say he will argue Republican prosperity has not materialized and that the tariff has failed to protect the American working man as claimed.

KNOWS SITUATION
Senator Butler knows the economic situation better than the average politician as he is the owner of textile mills himself. Conditions may change for the better before next year. In any event, he knows that it will be too late to begin fighting next summer and that the plans for a congressional campaign must be made now. Hence the conference with the president program being shaped now presents the recommendations which if enacted into law will do most to help the Republicans in congress stay in power.

BESCHTA STILL LAPSES INTO UNCONSCIOUSNESS

B. J. Beschta, who was seriously injured Tuesday evening when he was struck by a car driven by Anton Boehm, Calumet Harbor, is still semiconscious at St. Elizabeth hospital. Beschta's condition is about the same as when he was taken to the hospital. A bone in his ankle was splintered and a plaster cast was put on the ankle Friday. In addition to the injury to his ankle, Beschta suffered several severe scalp wounds.

Melbourne Veranda Collapses During Parade of U. S. Sailors

By Associated Press
Melbourne, Australia—One hundred and thirteen persons were injured, some of them seriously, when the veranda of a motion picture theatre collapsed during a parade of sailors of the visiting American fleet Friday.

No one was killed and none of the American sailors was hurt. A record crowd turned out to welcome the bluejackets, and many hundreds of people crowded onto the veranda cheering enthusiastically. Without warning, the veranda gave way and the spectators were plunged in a heap.

GIVEN WARM WELCOME
San Francisco, Calif.—The United States Fleet in Australian waters rode on waves of friendships Friday. While the warships were berthed off shore at Melbourne and Sydney, officials of the government at the two cities vied with each other in extending a warm welcome to officers and men of the fleet.

Friday the fleet lined up for a dress parade through the gala decorated streets of Melbourne. The parade was programmed as a brilliant spectacle.

Darrow Refuses Part In Capital Evolution Case

Washington, D. C.—Confidence expressed by government counsel that the suit brought here to throw into the federal court the whole question of the teaching of evolution can be defeated on technical flaws has caused no apparent discouragement in the evolutionists' camp.

Council for Loren H. Wittner, the government employee who brought the injunction proceedings to stop payment of salaries of school officials here on the ground that they were violating a provision of the District of Columbia appropriation bill against the teaching of "disrespect" for the Bible, declared they are ready to take other legal steps if the present suit fails.

In the meantime, they are reaching out for reinforcement of their legal forces in the fight. They are awaiting reply to an appeal for support to the American Civil Liberties association.

Mrs. Wettmaack, badly burned, was rushed to a Twin City hospital. Her recovery is doubted.

The fire was caused by the exploding of a kerosene lamp. The fire occurred at 1:30 Friday morning. Wettmaack lost his life trying to save the children. Mrs. Wettmaack came to Superior Thursday afternoon and left for home on the midnight train. Her husband went to tiny station at Harlis to meet her at 1:30 Friday morning. While he was gone the fire started and when the couple reached the house it was in flames.

Wettmaack gave his life in an effort to rescue the four children, the oldest 24 years of age.

U. S. MACHINERY HELPS SOLVE FARM PROBLEM

Chicago—A machine which with four men, does the work of thirty hand workers, has been developed by Sir Charles Ross, big game hunter and firearms manufacturer, by using American farm machinery methods.

A shipment of the new machinery has been made from LaCrosse to his estate, Balmagown, Scotland. The machine combines a mowing hay loader, ensilage cutter and a crawler type tractor to furnish the power.

After four years of experimental feeding of his cattle, on the advice of the United States Department of Agriculture for a solution of increasing the winter carrying capacity of his estate, Sir Charles found his livestock would eat the scotch ensilage made of beans, peas and tares. The problem of hand labor, however, made the harvest and ensilage of the crop too costly. Turning to American farm machines he worked out the combination used in the new machine.

CATHOLIC UNION FAILS TO GET BADGER PERMIT

Madison — License to operate in Wisconsin was refused the Western Catholic union, an insurance society, by W. Stanley Smith, insurance commissioner on the grounds that the society was violating the Wisconsin statute providing that no more than 20 per cent of the total assets of the company may be invested in a home office building. Refusal was announced in a letter to the president of the society made public by the commission Friday.

TWO COULD SWIM

Only Rosella and Bernice were able to swim and they were barely able to keep up in the water. Rosella and Esther were in bathing suits while the other girls were fully dressed, Bernice being in knickers and Viola in street clothes. The canoe shot away from them as it capsized and the girls, floundering in the water, called for help.

Bushey, Gill and another lad, about 10 years of age, swimming near by saw the canoe tip and heard the cry for help and started at once for the sinking girls. The younger lad turned back after a few feet, realizing that he could be of no help. Viola and Esther sank almost immediately but Bernice and Rosella were able to keep up for a few moments. Bernice had gone down two times, once pulled down when one of the other girls grasped her by the waist and legs, when Bushey reached her. He grasped her as quickly as he could, calming her fears, he paddled with one hand while he fought off her frantic clutches with the other, supporting her head.

Fourth Girl in Canoe Party Barely Rescued by 15-year-old Hero

SAY GIRLS ROCKED BOAT

Young Women, Unable to Swim, Spilled in Deep Water Near Cottage

Tragedy, stalking six Appleton young ladies camping at Sunset cottage on Lake McCrossen, one of the Chamois Lakes at Waupaca, claimed three of the girls late Thursday afternoon, just a few hours before they were to break up camp preparatory to returning to their homes here. The three young women were drowned in about forty feet of water when their canoe, in which four young women were riding, suddenly capsized.

The dead:

VIOLA REINKE, 21, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reinke, Route 5, Appleton.

ESTHER HELMS, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Helms, 818 W. Spencer-st.

ROSELLA HELMS, 21, also a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Helms.

Miss Bernice Kuehn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kuehn, 309 S. Mason-st., was rescued by Worth Bushey, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bushey, Waupaca, after a desperate struggle. Bushey, after getting Miss Kuehn to safety, swam back to where the canoe tipped over but was unable to reach the girls before they sank 'out of sight. Elmer Gill, 15, also swimming near the accident, attempted to save one of the girls and was almost drowned himself in the attempt.

WITNESS TRAGEDY

The tragedy was witnessed from the shore by Miss Lucille Treiber, 34, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Treiber, 1127 W. Lawrence-st., and Miss Lydia Kasten, 21, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kasten, 1024 W. Franklin-st., the other two members of the camping party. Miss Treiber was the chaperone for the group.

BODIES RECOVERED

The bodies were recovered within two hours and were brought to Appleton early Thursday evening. Miss Reinke's body was brought to the surface in about 40 minutes and the bodies of the Helms sisters were recovered about an hour later.

The accident occurred shortly after 4 o'clock and about 15 minutes after the girls started on a second cruise into the lake. Three of the young women had been paddling about the lake for about an hour when Rosella, asked to go to shore to obtain a new burn lotion. The girls pulled the canoe close to shore and Esther Helms, who had been on the beach, got into the boat with them. They started out into the lake, again, with Miss Kuehn paddling the canoe from the front and Miss Reinke paddling in the rear. Miss Kuehn, whose back was wounded by the other girls, warned them to quit and to return to the shore with being afraid and continued to rock the frail craft. She warned them again, and threatened to take them back to shore but they laughed and an instant later the four of them were in the water.

COURT REFUSES WRIT TO PREVENT STORE ADDITION

Temporary Restraining Order Against Charles Goettlicher Is Dissolved

The temporary order restraining Charles E. Goettlicher, proprietor of the Star bakery, 113 E. North-st. from building an addition to his bakery was dissolved and an injunction order was denied by Judge Edgar V. Werner Thursday afternoon in circuit court. Neighbors of Goettlicher objected to the addition, declaring that it violated the city zoning ordinance and also was a nuisance to residents of the neighborhood. The city zoning board of appeals granted a permit to the local baker and the case was carried into court.

Goettlicher was about to build the addition after the decision of the board of appeals, but at the advice of his lawyers held up the work until the case was settled in court. He now will proceed with the building. Whether the case will be appealed to a higher court was not disclosed on Thursday. At Thursday's session in circuit court important points considered were the interpretation of the city zoning ordinance, each side making a different view of the law, and the limit of the zoning board's power in the case in question. Judge Werner also discussed with the contending parties the state sanitary and fire laws as they affected the case.

KIWANISANS HOPE TO FINISH TOURIST CAMP

Appleton's new tourist camping ground provided by the Appleton Kiwanis club, will be completed Saturday evening, according to J. L. Johns, chairman of the Kiwanis camp site committee. All Kiwanis members have been requested by the committee to go to the camp site at 1:30 Saturday afternoon to put the finishing touches on the camp work. The camp is located northwest of Alida park on the bank of the river and is an ideal spot for tourists to stop over night. The Kiwanis club has built shower baths, constructed a brick out-of-door oven for cooking, and is putting up a building where cooking may be done. Besides these improvements the club has cleaned up the grounds, moved the bus grass on the river bank and put up signs directing tourists to the camp.

Some of the Kiwanis members worked on the camp site from 4 to 6 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Miss Wilma Menning returned Thursday evening from a several days visit with friends in Milwaukee.

YOUTHS HURT IN TRIP TO DANCE

Four Couples Have Trip to Five Corners Ended When Auto Hits Culvert Block

Four couples driving to Five Corners in a touring car at about midnight Thursday had their trip ended rather abruptly when the machine struck a culvert, resulting in cuts and bruises to some of the occupants. The automobile was badly damaged.

George Thies, 330 E. Spring-st., suffered a severe cut on the face and other cuts and bruises and required the attention of a physician. Abe Hannemann, 318 W. Summer-st. Abe Belling, N. Oneida-st. and another young man named Schroeder were cut and bruised slightly. Four young women who accompanied them were not hurt except for the shock of the collision.

The couples had spent most of the evening dancing at Waverly beach and decided to ride to Five Corners and dance for a while. They embarked in Hannemann's automobile and were about a mile northeast of Batley Corners when the accident happened. The wheels got into loose crushed stone and the driver was unable to steer clear of a culvert abutment. The car struck the concrete projection quite forcibly and the front was smashed badly as a result.

Thies was taken to a physician and the others were conveyed to their homes in other machines.

LOSES HAY CROP IN BARN BLAZE

Spontaneous Combustion Causes Fire at Isidor Klement Home, E. Calumet-st

More than ten tons of hay was destroyed and a small farm barn damaged in a fire at 11 o'clock Thursday morning at the home of Isidor Klement, 615 E. Calumet-st. A small fire also occurred at 3:40 in the afternoon at a home B. C. Koepke is building at 310 N. Clark-st. caused by children at play.

The Klement fire was believed to be due to spontaneous combustion. Flames were discovered in hay under a roof next to the barn and by the time the fire department arrived they had made good headway through the hayloft above. Mr. Klement had the loft filled. Part of the roof was burned off and a portion of the side walls damaged before judicious use of water could quench the fire. All of the hay in and next to the barn was ruined and a hay stack nearby also was burned so badly the remainder is practically worthless. None of the man's livestock was in the building at the time.

Children playing with matches were blamed for the Koepke fire. The home was under construction and a bonfire was built which ignited the siding. Persons who discovered the fire put it out but turned in an alarm for safety. The damage was confined to a few boards which will have to be replaced.

APPLETON AND NEW YORK MEN IN TOY COMPANY

Toy Corporation of America Is Formed to Replace Bankrupt Concern Here

Appleton has not lost an industry through bankruptcy of the Toy Corporation of America, for organization of a new corporation known as the Toy Corporation of America now has been completed and the factory is busy filling orders, with a force of 30 men at work.

Incorporation of the new concern has been approved and the articles issued from the office of the secretary of state at Madison. The capital stock is placed at $50,000 and the official staff is made up of a combination manufacturing and selling organization with office and plant in Appleton and a sales office in New York City. The local men connected with the enterprise are Frank E. Wright, secretary and treasurer, and his son William Wright, general manager. Julius Levenson of New York, is the president and Otto Kaufman, vice president.

When the Toy Corporation of America closed down arrangements were made by F. E. Wright to continue with the manufacture of the line of toys produced in the Appleton plant. He interested the New York men in the enterprise and the industry was resumed when a selling party had been fixed. The Appleton men look after the manufacturing end and Mr. Levenson and Mr. Kaufman, who remain in New York, attend to the sales. The product was marketed under the name of Kaufman, Levenson & Co., until the new name was adopted. The plant is located in part of Graef Manufacturing company's building here and the sales office is at 7 E. Seventeenth st., New York City.

Operations have been carried on by the new concern since March 1 and orders amounting to about $12,000 have been filled in that time. Unfilled orders now on the books amount to $10,000, F. E. Wright declares. It is the hope of the management to increase the sales and production now that the concern is more firmly established, and add to the number of men employed.

Employees of the company and their families are to be entertained at a picnic at Waverly beach next Saturday. Most of the day will be given over to the outing.

WINNEBAGO-CO EAGER TO OPEN-CHERRY-ST ROAD

Officials and residents of Winnebago are making every effort to complete plans for the road work between the south end of the Cherry-st bridge and state trunk highway 15 in that county as soon as possible, according to reports from Oshkosh. County officials have assured Appleton city officials of hearty cooperation and the work which is being carried on in the neighboring county to keep this promise probably will cement the two counties closer together than ever before. Plans for shortening the route from the bridge to the highway are being completed and the work will be finished by the fall of 1926, Winnebago officials said.

MR. DARROW'S AGNOSTICISM

The Scopes case terminated in conformance with regular and legal procedure. Mr. Scopes was properly found guilty by the jury and fined as the law contemplated. All that remains to be determined is the constitutionality of the law under which he was convicted. If that is upheld by the supreme court of Tennessee and ultimately by the supreme court of the United States, the case is ended and similar laws may be enacted by other states should they so desire.

It is our opinion that the law will be upheld and that if it is it will result in a general movement to proscribe the teaching of evolution. Already we hear talk of the introduction of a bill for this purpose in congress. The consequence of such a collision between evolutionists and fundamentalists would be unfortunate. It would be better if we would use our common sense, as we have in the past, teaching the theory of evolution in our higher institutions of learning and ignoring it in our public schools, on the ground that there are other subjects of instruction more important and more substantial in this period.

Mr. Darrow's questioning of Mr. Bryan was contemptible in the extreme. It reveals a man utterly insensible of all propriety. Mr. Bryan's religion is his personal affair and is none of Mr. Darrow's business. To assail it and revile it is a gross personal insult. It had no relation to the issue at Dayton. Mr. Bryan's answers may appear to many as going too far in a literal acceptance of the Bible, but his spiritual faith is vastly more ennobling and dignified than Mr. Darrow's coarse ridicule. If criticism is to be attached to Mr. Bryan's attitude, it is his apparent desire to have his religion established by law. Mr. Darrow seems to have lost sight entirely of this issue.

Mr. Darrow's answers to Mr. Bryan's questions, on the other hand, are a plain attack on the established religion of the civilized world. There certainly is in Mr. Darrow's mind a conflict between religion and evolution. He denies the foundations of christianity. He refuses the christian conception of a spiritual God. He does not believe the Bible was inspired. He ridicules the virgin birth of Christ. He scoffs at Christ's divinity. He can find no evidence of immortality.

Mr. Darrow's unbelief, or agnosticism, or whatever one may choose to term it, will register applause by many of our super-intellectuals, by many of our jazz-age materialists who believe that religious and spiritual professions are signs of weakness. A number of years ago a man by the name of Ingersoll made similar overtures to the world. He found a few followers. From time to time other atheists or agnostics have arisen to challenge christianity and religion. It is their daring more than anything else that has enlisted public attention. We think it is so with Mr. Darrow.

We cannot conceive that the world is ready to abandon the Bible as an inspired guide. We cannot conceive of its rejection as the basis of our moral and spiritual institutions, and of religious faith. We cannot conceive of the president of the United States taking his oath of office except on the Bible, not that this ceremony is essential to his induction into office, but because of the significance that it use implies. We cannot conceive that the world is ready to abandon its belief in the immortality of the soul. Mr. Darrow to the contrary notwithstanding, we believe the evidences of immortality to the rational mind are complete and satisfying. Minds that would dwarf Mr. Darrow's have found this evidence positive and sustaining. Nearly all of the great leaders of the world in that which makes for social and moral progress, have been God-fearing men. As against this multitude we have had a handful of scoffers, a thimbleful of egoists.

In recent years the church undoubtedly has suffered some loss of prestige, but it has been due to its own mistakes and inconsistencies, in our opinion, rather than to a growing lack of spirituality in man. For the first time in our history agnosticism or atheism have challenged the place of God and religion in the institutional and political life of America, not in the sense of state religion, which we do not recognize, but in the sense of our national christianity—the sense that christianity is the basis of our government and our civilization. It is done by the defender of Loeb and Leopold. We should hesitate to follow this man, even in the name of intellectual freedom.

To our way of looking at the matter, the cravings of the soul are more important than the cravings of the mind; things spiritual are more important than things material. The products and conceptions of the mind alone can never be a very satisfactory explanation of the why and the wherefore of life, or of the mystery of death. If what is visible and knowable is all that exists for man, there is little reason for his existence; the searchings of his soul, its groping for light, its spiritual instincts, become nonsense. On that supposition, the eating of a beefsteak is the real thing; reverence for the beauties and mysteries of life, nature and the universe, and for a Supreme Being, which has characterized every race of every time, is a fantasy and absurdity.

INVESTORS STILL IN DANGER

An attack is being made on the Nickel Plate merger by the minority stockholders of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, one of the systems brought into the consolidation of the Van Sweringens. Hearings on the merger are being held before the Interstate Commerce commission and at the proceedings day before yesterday counsel for the C. & O. minority stockholders alleged that the proposal is a stock manipulation deal that would net the Van Sweringens interests $75,000,000.

The lawyers for those who are objecting to the consolidation presented a table of figures purporting to show that the Van Sweringens had invested approximately $52,000,000 to effect the merger and that new stock issued in lieu of that of the five railroads in the consolidation would have a market value of $128,000,000, giving the promoters a profit of the difference, or approximately $75,000,000.

Counsel for the Nickel Plate on the other hand declare an examination of the figures offered shows large errors, while a news story quotes a statistician for the promoters as saying that the profit of the Van Sweringens would be "only $23,000,000."

Ever since the Nickel Plate merger was announced there has been a suspicion in the public mind that it might be a financial merger, and that a huge bankers' profit would be taken out of the transaction, while the consolidated properties would be loaded up with a topheavy capitalization. The public had begun to feel some security against these watered stock deals, but it would seem that we still have to be on our guard against them. It is the duty of commissions and courts to protect both investors and the public from reorganizations and consolidations of public utilities undertaken for the purpose of manipulation, and which in the addition of new liabilities more than offset the possible benefit that might accrue from operating economies. If the Van Sweringens are trying to put over something of this nature they ought to be stopped.

A REAL BOOK
Of all the books that are printed these days, there is one that is up in the lead. It's king of them all in a good many ways and it's one that we all like to read.
To have and to hold it brings pleasure galore and it keeps lots of worries away. We all ought to know what this book's really for, for the owning of one seems to pay.
We open the pages and read from the book. It chases away all the frown. The cause of the thrill when we're taking a look, is the figures, in ink, scribbled down.
You sure ought to know what I'm talking about. This booklet that stands out alone, and gives us the greatest of pleasure, no doubt, is the thin little bank book we own.

Noted Physician and Author
Dr. Brady will answer all signed letters pertaining to health. Writer's names are never printed. TIME TO TEACH 'EM SOMETHING

Our health course, writes a Chicago teacher of teachers in training to teach, includes physiology, bacteriology, the hygiene of heating, ventilation and lighting, and the course has become a model for other schools. All the work is made personal and practical. In fact, the dozen or so copies of "Personal Health" which are in the library are in constant demand.
Enuf said. That book is nearly 10 years old, and it was never intended as a textbook for students. The course as outlined by this teacher of teachers sounds good, however. The future teachers are probably harmed less by the reading of "Personal Health" than they would be by reading some of the humbug magazines that purport to be published in the interest of health.
A Buffalo correspondent (presumably a teacher) writes that hygiene instruction has been a part of the regular work in physical education in one of the Buffalo high schools for a number of years, and heretofore each teacher has arranged his own material, using various books and pamphlets, an arrangement which is not very satisfactory. This teacher wants suggestions to help him in the planning of a more substantial course, and he, too, emphasizes the desire to make the instruction practical, so that each individual may make use of it in maintaining his own health in the environment in which he lives.
Well, now, children, we're getting interested, anyhow. But let us avoid enthusiasm, for as soon as the unseen interests get wind of any movement to teach the boys and girls what they should know, we'll be penalized for it, sure as shooting. Let no mere teacher or doctor develop grandiose notions about education. The hidden proprietary interests control these things, and they permit no interference on the part of mere people.
But these letters from Chicago and Buffalo teachers contained much food for thought, in fact, indigestible food, and they gave me a rather pleasant nightmare. I dreamed that we had discovered some way to avoid the terrible aspects of the pyramid of courses in the common schools, all under qualified teachers, who had received proper training for their work:

- (1) For girls from 10 to 16 years of age: Care of the baby, 48 semester hours; home nursing, 48 semester hours.
 - (2) For boys from 10 to 16 years of age: First aid, 48 semester hours.
 - (3) For all pupils, requisite for entrance to high school: Elementary hygiene, 24 semester hours; elementary physiology, 24 semester hours.
 - (4) First year high school: Biology of sex; girls' classes taught by a woman teacher trained for the difficult subject; boys' classes by a man teacher properly qualified to teach the subject.
 - (5) Second year high school: Advanced hygiene, including practical pathology and the prevention of disease, 48 semester hours.
 - (6) Third year high school: Chemistry of nutrition, 24 semester hours; diet, 24 semester hours.
- And we were making great progress in the upbuilding of health when the interests got wind of it and I awoke.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Who Is The Best?
I have a sick son and I want to consult the best nerve specialist in the country. I have telephoned several hospitals and they have given me a dozen different names. Surely there must be one or two who are considered the best. (W. H.)
Answer.—There are a thousand best. I should be glad to recommend a competent specialist in neurology and psychiatry in your own city or any other city you prefer to visit. I cannot designate the best. That is a question of personal preference. Send a stamped self-addressed envelope. (Copyright National Newspaper Service.)

Two Streets Offer Temptation to Drivers—Oshkosh and New London Men on List

Special to Post-Crescent
Waupaca—Two streets in Waupaca appear to the fast drivers, notably School and W. Fulton, as most of the arrests are made there. Sam Ottenstein of Chicago, and Fred Rosche of Milwaukee, paid fines of $10 and costs in street court for driving too fast on Second-st. Len Kupperens of New London, and Herman Leight of Oshkosh, exceeded the limit on W. Fulton-st and they too were assessed $10 and costs.
An effort is being made on the part of certain business men to have all bus transportation within the city limits put under city control and issue a franchise to those who meet certain requirements as laid down by the city. Waupaca city baseball team will swing into action again Sunday when Berlin comes here for its meeting of the season with the locals. The local management expects to draw the strongest lineup so far pitted against any visiting team. The team will be strengthened by several high class men.
In the past seven days, 104 visiting players have registered at Waupaca Golf club course. This is pleasing to the local members who felt that in organizing the golf club in Waupaca they were supplying a necessity in a summer city.

Roy Holly is still leading the low ball tournament for July with several other players trailing. They must shoot a number of birds or secure the hole in one to catch up. Of the ladies, Mrs. Donald Barnes is leading with Mrs. F. R. Fisher and Mrs. Rudersdorf second.
Much interest is taken in the tournament for New London players only. Twelve players from New London are entered to date. Simon Jennings is now first, followed closely by Hadrian Manske and T. G. Roberts. The rest of the players entered are also in the running. The winner will receive a new steel shaft driver donated by the directors of the Waupaca Golf club.

For the first time in the history of wrestling in Waupaca, local fans are to be treated to a world's championship match at the armory on Friday night of next week, July 31, when Johnny Meyers, world's champion Carl Van Wurden, Canadian middleweight champion in a finish match met with no time limit. These two men met at Oshkosh a short time ago, and although Van Wurden lost, he had the champion on the defensive nearly all of the time, and it was the general opinion of the fans who witnessed the bout that Van Wurden has better than an even chance for the title in the coming battle.

The evening's entertainment will feature double windup, as Jack Sperling of Chicago, will meet Mel Bailey of Madison, in a finish bout, preceding the championship match. Sperling wrestled Tallier in an hour's draw recently, and is one of the best of the country's young mat men. Bailey has a long list of victories to his credit, and will be out to show what he is capable of doing. In fact, he is one of the men who has been promised a chance at Meyers' title.
Kelley Marting and Charles Weisbrod of Weyauwega, were business callers here Thursday morning.
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stratton autoed to Lake Emily Wednesday to visit the boy scout troops of which their son is a member.

19 Happy Kids Start For Camp

They're off! Nineteen happy kids, and a number of counselors boarded a big green bus at 7 o'clock Friday morning and in a few minutes were rolling along toward Waupaca, the Chain of Lakes and Onaway Island where they will camp for a week at the Appleton Women's club camp. The youngsters were all "rarin' to go," and some of them piled in the bus and parked themselves about 15 minutes before the driver was ready to start so they would be sure not to be left behind. They had been counting on this trip for many long weeks, and the didn't mean to be left out now that the great moment of departure had finally arrived. For the last week they had been counting the days and hours.

On top of the bus was a large pile of camp blankets, and on the back of the bus suitcases were piled up four deep. Another bus went at 11 Friday morning carrying the remainder of the girls' luggage, the camp supplies, and a few camp counselors who did not go with the first load. Some of the children will be taken up to the camp by their parents during the day.

As the luggage was being securely strapped to the early bus, the children clustered about the big machine talking excitedly and eager to get started.

The first 7 o'clock whistle blew calling many people to another day's grind, but it was sweet music to the crowd of youngsters, as it marked the beginning of their week of enjoyment and outdoor sport at Onaway. They piled into the bus filling it to capacity, roll was called and all 19 were present. And as the whistles were still blowing the bus pulled out with its joyful cargo shouting and waving farewells to parents and friends who got up at an early hour to speed the campers on their way.

No Canoes For Girls At Onaway

Swimming at Appleton Women's club camp at Onaway Island, Waupaca, which opened Friday, is very carefully supervised by nine life savers and the swimming counselors so that mothers of the girls attending the camp need have no fear or anxiety about accidents happening in the swimming classes, according to Miss Eleanor Halls, in charge of the camp. The "Buddy" system, recommended by the American Red Cross, is to be used in the swimming classes at the camp. By this system a constant check is kept on the girls in swimming. Each girl is assigned a "buddy" with whom she goes into the water. The girl is responsible for her "buddy" and must keep an eye on her constantly while in swimming. The girls go into the water in pairs under this system, each couple being a pair of "buddies." In this way every girl in the swimming class is being watched constantly at all times.

The woman's club has taken a number of additional precautions to assure the safety of the swimmers. There are four life guards who have passed the senior life saving test, and five junior life guards. All of these are constantly on the alert to see that the girls are safe at all times. Two of these life guards patrol the life line in a row boat, one rowing the boat and the other watching the swimmers.

The swimming counselors headed by Mrs. Herbert Hackworthy are not only excellent swimmers, but some have passed the life saving test given by the Red Cross. Those girls who cannot swim are not allowed to go in deep water but have their own shallow beach where instruction in swimming are given them.

Canoes are absolutely taboo at the camp. No girl no matter how good a swimmer she may be will be allowed in a canoe. The camp is provided with ten flat bottom boats, and the girls are not even allowed to venture out in these unless they are accompanied by a life guard or swimming counselor.

When a swimming class is ready to go into the water roll call is taken before any are allowed to go in, and another check up is made when the class comes out. The entire class go in and come out of the lake at the same time. No girls are allowed in the water except in the regular swimming class periods.

LEGION READY TO OPEN DRIVE FOR ENDOWMENT

Pettigrew Explains Purpose of Fund at Meeting of Veterans and Businessmen

Kaukauna—Declaring that men who served in the world war and their wives and children have a right to a normal existence, H. J. Pettigrew of Appleton, county contact officer for the American legion, explained the purpose of the national $5,000,000 endowment fund drive being conducted by the legion in the United States, at a meeting of local business men and members of Kaukauna post of the legion Thursday evening in legion hall.

The meeting from a standpoint of attendance by business men was a disappointment. Not more than a dozen merchants responded to the invitations sent out by the legion.

Mr. Pettigrew declared that the endowment fund money will be used to care for widows and children of former soldiers who are unable to provide for them. The money also will be used for reconstruction work among disabled veterans.

The speaker mentioned that the government has been liberal with the soldiers but that the government, like many other agencies, is handicapped by men who have no personal interest in the claims of those they are supposed to help. In many instances it requires much red tape and loss of time in securing compensation. It is during the interval of waiting that the legion fund will come into use for the veterans who might otherwise starve while waiting for government machinery to function.

Mr. Pettigrew stated the primary purpose of the organization of the legion was for the relief of afflicted veterans. The time will come, he said, when the legion will be no more. Now, while the organization is young and strong, is the time for it to do its work, he declared.

The families of veterans who have given their lives in service have a right to a normal existence, the speaker said. Those who stayed behind should not be penalized because their means of support was taken away through service. The widows must be cared for, the children raised and educated and provided with homes where they may grow up to be a credit to their country.

In explaining the drive for funds, Mr. Pettigrew stated Wisconsin is confronted with a peculiar situation. The new legion camp at Tomahawk Lake recently opened must be kept up and funds are required. It was cited the speaker added, that this state raise $300,000, one third of which will remain in the state for the camp.

Kaukauna's quota in the drive will be $1,025. Plans will be made for a selective rather than a general drive. The speaker explained that best results can be obtained by outlining first every detail of the proposed campaign and then going into it and finishing it up in as short a time as possible. A general committee of prominent local men will be appointed soon. From that group the actual working committees will be selected, it was said.

ELECTRICS WIN SHORT BATTLE

Game Is Called in Sixth When Papermakers Return to Their Work

Kaukauna—Thilmany baseball players in the Twilight league were on the short end of an 8 to 7 score Thursday evening when they left the field at the end of the sixth inning because several of the men had to return to work. The Utilities department which is holding its own in second place in the league standings and which is making a strong bid for first honors, were the victors.

Thilmany went out after them in the second stanza and scored two runs on a base on balls, a double and a wild throw. They annexed another in the third on a fielder's choice and three singles. In the fourth two more tallies were added when C. Schell socked the apple over the garden wall for a four play hit with a pal on the sacks. Schell repeated his performance in the sixth and drove another man in ahead of him. Harold Stegeman occupied the mound for the Papermakers.

The Electricians opened their attack with a bang in the third round and chased five markers over the log on a series of clean singles and doubles. They added three more in the fifth when the batters went on another rampage.

Wednesday evening the Royals nosed out the Shoptons, 12 to 11, in an exciting exhibition. The Royals got to the opposing pitcher in the first inning for seven tallies on a series of walks and hits. They added three in the fourth and two more in the eighth when an extra inning was necessary to decide the battle.

The shops scored once in the second stanza, six times in the fourth and tied the count at 10 all in the fifth with three runs. They managed to score only one in the eighth while the Royals sewed up the game by collecting two buttons.

ACCIDENT DELAYS OPENING OF HIGHWAY

Kaukauna—The snapping of a cable on the gasoline shovel owned by the Joseph McCarty Construction Co. has caused a slight delay in the opening of the new pavement on Dodge-st. past the city hall park. The road has been closed longer than ordinarily necessary to allow the company to take down an embankment on one side of the road which blocked the view of motorists. During the process of that work one of the cables on the shovel broke. It was necessary to send to Milwaukee for another since it was a size not carried in stock in Appleton or Green Bay. Mr. McCarty expected to have the machine in readiness to work again by Friday and it is hoped to have the road open for traffic by Saturday evening.

WORKMAN'S EYE HURT BY CHIP FROM RIVET

LUMMERDING AND SON WIN SCHOOL BUILDING

Kaukauna—Lummerding and Son, dealers in fuel and building material, have been awarded the abandoned kindergarten building on Lave-st for a consideration of $450. Sealed bids were received by the board of education and were opened at a special meeting this week. Only three bids were received. A higher bid of $475 was received but the man who offered that sum withdrew when he was informed he was the highest bidder because of his inability to raise the money. The other bid received was from A. R. Miller, postmaster, who offered a new $400 piano, giving the board the privilege of choosing the instrument.

TULLY MARSHALL LAYS CLAIM TO BEING PROOF AGAINST ALL JINX

Tully Marshall, who plays the part of Peter Stalton, in "The Ladder Jinx," which comes to the New Bijou Theater today and Saturday, believes he is proof against any jinx alive or dead. He is in this picture an irascible old bank cashier, who hides some very definite shortcomings behind an exterior so forbidding that his secret is kept intact. It requires the utmost efforts of the jinx to entangle this wily old bird—but in the end he surrenders.

"The Ladder Jinx" is another of those clever Joss Robins comedies of business. They are proving that it is possible to produce clever, subtle comedy on the screen, shorn of all slapstick.

MARSHALL NEILAN CATCHES SPIRIT OF OLD ENGLAND

Marshall Neilan has caught not only the atmosphere, but the spirit of England and Scotland in his new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, "The Sporting Venus," playing at the Elite Theater for the last time tonight.

His atmosphere should be authentic enough, for the exterior scenes were all filmed in England, and the results as shown on the screen prove the soundness of Neilan's judgment in going abroad. The story itself is of a high-spirited heiress, neglected by her father, who falls in love with a poor man.

Blanche Sweet gets a "dress-up" role at last, and plays it with much dash and charm. Ronald Colman is masculinely attractive as the suitor, and Lew Cody as the fortune-hunter, not only is as villainous as usually, but very funny in many scenes as well.

YOUTH IS CAUGHT IN WOMAN'S WILES

To be loved and damned by the same woman within twenty-four hours is the lot of "Bobby Austin," a part played by Ben Lyon in "One Way Street," a photoplay of English society, which is showing at the Elite Theater Saturday and Sunday.

In this sensational adaptation of Beale Davis' best selling novel Lyon is cast in the part of a young American who is the victim of an older woman's quest for youth. Blinded by her motives, he succumbs to her charms, and then finds that it was all a part of the woman's daring game to again experience the adventures of youth.

"One Way Street" was directed by John Francis Dillon, the director of "Flaming Youth." Anna Q. Nilsson, co-featured with Lyon plays the part of the "youth seeker." The cast also includes such popular names as Marjorie Daw, Lumsden Hare, Mona Kingsley, Thomas Holding and Dorothy Cumming.

ALL WOMEN WHO WORK

Whether in the home, store, shop, mill or office, they alone know how often they are really unfit for work. It may be a headache, backache, pain in the side, nervous depression, cramps or those dreadful dragging-down pains, all of which symptoms have their origin in some feminine ailment that is making life a burden. In almost every such case these ailments will yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For a great many years this simple root and herb remedy has been restoring women to health and strength and it will pay every suffering woman to try it.

Where the Penny Pavement Leads

THIS advertisement is far from an arraignment of the importance of the penny. For it is safe to say that institutions of the size and position of Wadhams could not "get that way" without due regard for small economies. Cutting the penny and fraction-of-a-penny costs is a vital part of their successful service.

But business should know which are the right pennies to cut. For itself and its trade, it must not risk tomorrow's dollar on the unwisely saved cent of today. Don't you suppose that this institution — for forty years a pioneer figure in the Wisconsin oil market — is in a position to match any corrier filling station in the mere process of offering motor fuel at a couple of cents lower in gallon price?

Hasn't it all the opportunity — and temptation — of any other concern to load its fuel with carbon-plus and kerosene-plus fillers to increase its bulk and permit a lower selling price? Had you thought of that?

Wadhams 370 True Gasoline is evidence that Wadhams Oil Company believes for itself and for you that the quality pennies are the wrong pennies to cut in fueling your car — that they pave the wrong road for final economy.

That is why Wadhams "370" True Gasoline remains a genuine straight-run real gasoline instead of a kerosenish substitute with bitter dollar losses under the sugar-coat of temporary savings.

Trust it — implicitly — for your motor because Wadhams trusts it for the preservation of Wisconsin's oldest oil industry.

Oshkosh 6, Chilton 5, (10 innings.)
Plymouth 14, Campbellsport 4.

NEXT SUNDAY'S GAMES
Fond du Lac at Oshkosh.
Plymouth at Campbellsport.
Appleton at Chilton.

Appleton journeys to Chilton Sunday afternoon to attempt to repeat its performance at Brandt park here early in the season, when Chilton bowed to the Baetzmen, 10 to 8. The Papermakers have been off form for several games, but last week they showed they are regaining their batting eye getting to the Fond du Lac pitcher for 8 hits. Poor fielding lost them the game, but Manager C. O. Baetz has been putting them through their paces, and plans to play a practice game at Brandt park Saturday to get them into proper shape.

Oshkosh and Fond du Lac meet at the Sawdust City Sunday in the feature game of the loop schedule. Oshkosh will be fighting to get within reach of second place, where the Cardinals have been roosting for several weeks, while Plymouth is looking for an easy victory at Campbellsport.

CHANCE AT THIRD
If the Baetzmen succeed in copying from Chilton, Appleton will be firmly entrenched in fourth place, or tied for third if Oshkosh loses to Fond du Lac. Crowe, who was slightly off his usual form Sunday at Fond du Lac, will play in the field in the Chilton game, with either Tornow or Reflette on the mound. Tornow has been giving a good account of himself regularly, being steadier than Crowe, but a little more experience will do the latter a lot of good. Crowe pitches good ball but is too young to stand the gauntlet in nine innings of hard play regularly and needs an occasional rest, according to Manager Baetz.

Smith and Perph, probably will be the Chilton battery.

Poor baserunning lost for the Clubhouse Specials, 16 to 11, in a comedy of errors Thursday afternoon in which the Wrinkles Rounders came out on top, keeping their hold on first place in the Kimberly Softball league. Twelve errors were chalked up against the Specials, while the Rounders made eight.

The Rounders gathered 14 hits off Briggs, Dohr and Williams. Clubhouse Specials—Briggs and Verbeten. Score by innings:

Clubhouse Specials 0 1 2 1 0 1 0 1 5—11

BOTH ENDS WILL MEET IN TWILIGHT CIRCUIT

Both ends will meet Friday in the City Twilight league when the first place Post-Crescents clash with the tallend Meyer Press team. The P-C's have lost one game and won eight, while the Pressmen have won one and lost six. Early in the season it looked as though the Meyer club would be one of the leading contenders for league honors, but later they went into a slump that has kept them at the bottom. They will attempt to come to the surface Friday and have a chance to swap places with the Chair Co.

SENTINELS WILL MEET LITTLE CHUTE LEGION

Beyer's Sentinels will journey to Little Chute Sunday afternoon to seek revenge on the American Legion team there for a 9 to 6 defeat suffered at the vet's hands early in the season. Vanderstein and Harjes will be the battery for the Legion, while Stegeman, Mayefski and Ashman will do their stuff for the Sentinels.

PINCH HITTERS ARE HELP TO BANCROFT

Boston—Speaking of pinch hitters, the Boston Braves certainly had some success with them in a game against the Cardinals the other day.
Going into the last half of the ninth five runs behind Manager Bancroft injected three pinch clubbers into the activities, Gibson, Nels and Mann being the trio. All of them came through with safeties, Gibson slashing out a triple.
The result was that the Braves counted four runs, two brilliant stops by Shortstop Sell of the Hornsby entourage preventing the locals from grabbing the game.

PHIL KEEPS HIS TITLE FROM SHEA

Rosenberg Driven All Over Ring in Early Rounds but Stages Comeback

By Associated Press
New York—Eight of American pugilists' nine boxing championships remain in the east. Friday after a stouthearted, strongarmed defense of the bantamweight title by Charley (Phil) Rosenberg against a vain but furious challenge from Chicago.

Rosenberg sits on his throne along side Genaro, Kaplan, Ballerino, Goodrich, Walker, Greb and Berlenbach. But only because he was unable to check out the hard hitting Eddie Shea after 9 minutes and 27 seconds of terrific fighting. Winning through a maelstrom of haymakers, the champion put down Shea after hitting himself by a mighty effort from the brink of defeat.

The east is now fistically supreme in every division except the heavy-weight class, and in that division, two formidable eastern challengers, Gene Tunney and Harry Williams, are barking their knuckles at the gate of Jack Dempsey of Utah and California.

In the first two rounds, Shea drove the champion all over the ring. Then Rosenberg met the challenger in the center of the arena and slugged with him toe to toe, until a terrific right floored the Chicago boy. Shea took a count of two and sprang up only to measure his length on the canvas again for a count of three. Exchanges in the fourth ended in another crushing Rosenberg right. This time the game Chicagoan went down for nine. He was too groggy to defend himself when he arose, and the champion finished his man.

SEE CHANCE FOR GREB-DEMPSEY GO

Chicago Sport Writers Confer With Floyd Fitzsimmons on Possibility

Chicago—A seed that may blossom into a meeting of Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, and Harry Greb, world's middleweight, in ten rounds at Michigan City in September, has been sowed.
Chicago sport writers, meeting with Promoter Floyd Fitzsimmons Thursday night decided Greb was the best available opponent for the heavy-weight champion who has said he could not be ready for Gene Tunney or Harry Willis this year.

Assurance from both principals that they would accept such a match have been received by Fitzsimmons. The promoter has agreed to post $50,000 guaranteeing to stage the contest. Dempsey would post $25,000 and Greb $10,000 if the negotiations were completed.

Greb and his manager, Reddy Mason, will come here Monday to confer with Fitzsimmons. The bout would be staged either Sept. 19 or 25, at Michigan City.

Dave's Dots And Dashes

After a recent meeting of Eastern Wisconsin league moguls in which two Chilton games were ordered played over, a report was circulated that the loop was threatened with disruption. Chilton was accused of using outside players contrary to the league's rules, but claimed that other clubs who also were guilty of the same offense had gone unscathed. No club has dropped out of the league so far, however, and it looks as though Sunday's games would come off according to schedule.

Lawrence college will have one of the most modern athletic fields in the state when work is completed on the Fourth ward track. More than a mile of cyclone fence already has been day.

PIRATES BACK IN LEAD AFTER BEATING CARDS

Athletics on Upper End of Seesaw When Yanks Beat Senators, 11-7.

New York—The shifting scenes of major league baseball Friday again starred Pittsburgh and Philo at the top of the picture.

Waiting until the ninth to loose a crushing battle attack the Pirates once more displaced the Giants at the crest of the National league pile by shading the Cardinals, 3 to 2, while the champions were halving a doubleheader with the Braves. Four percentage points separated the clubs Friday.

The American league see saw which has been teetering for several weeks, carried the Athletics up at one end and tossed Washington down at the other Thursday. Two homers by Lou Gehrig of the Yankees the second of which arrived in the seventh with the bases filled, bounced the Senators out of first place, 11 to 7. Rommel's seventeenth slab triumph of the season and timely hitting by Poole enabled the Mackmen to take advantage of the break by edging out the Red Sox, 5 to 4.

BRAVES 6, GIANTS 3

The tumble of the Giants was in the opening melee with the Braves, and Johnny Cooney was responsible. Although he allowed the champions 11 hits, he blanked them until the seventh and gave them only three runs over the full route while his mates were gathering six off Bentley.
Smart catching by Kent Greenfield and a ninth inning shoestring catch by Southard rescued the Giants in the second game, 5 to 3.

The Cardinals-Pirates clash, a pitching duel between Haines and Tde, ended with a Pittsburgh batting storm in the final frame when Guyler opened with a triple Traynor's double and Wright's single then put the game on ice.

Ty Cobb was back in the Detroit lineup after a week's suspension but he failed to rally the club after an early tilt, Chicago won, 8 to 4.

George Sisler went hitless after batting safely in 22 consecutive games as the Brown trailed the Indians, 10 to 1.

completed, and the foundation of the field house donated by Frank B. Whiting of Neenah has been started. The football field track will be ready for use in a short time, and a stadium is planned for the ravine just north of the field, land on which the present field has been laid out.

Les Smith, former State league coach, is carrying on his good work for the Ottumwa club of the Mississippi alley league. He poled two homers during the past three days, decides garnering a number of lesser hits. Les, a lefthander, was handy with his stick here, and showed great promise in the field with a little coaching.

Incorporation papers of the new Appleton Athletic club have been filed with the secretary of state at Madison, but the association has not yet received its franchise from the Wisconsin State Boxing commission. The club is looking for a promoter, and if the franchise arrives in time will put on its first card on Labor day.

BOXING MOGULS SET 34 ROUNDS AS CARD LIMIT

First Open Air Program at Milwaukee Will Take Advantage of Rule

Milwaukee—Boxing cards in Wisconsin which heretofore have been limited to 30 rounds, will, in the future, be increased to 34 sessions. The state athletic commission at its meeting on Wednesday voted on the four extra rounds and consequently three "tens" and a four will comprise the first open air program scheduled for Aug. 14 at the State Fair park arena.

The American Boxing league, which conducted the fight for outdoor exhibitions, recently appeared before the commission and asked that the old rule of 30 rounds be amended, but the solons frowned on the suggestion. The league, however, asked that the matter be reopened and at its meeting Wednesday the board agreed to comply with the boxers' request.

The card in all probabilities will be as follows:
Pinkey Mitchell vs. Willie Harmon, 10 rounds.
Billy Bortfeld vs. Eddie (Kid) Wagner, 10 rounds.
Harry Kahn vs. Basil Gallano or Alex Hart, 10 rounds.
Joey Clein vs. Earl McArthur, four rounds.

Because of the extra rounds, the starting time has been advanced to 8:15.

WAGNER HAS REWARD

The Bortfeld-Wagner feature was closed on Wednesday, when Frank Fawcett, legal advisor for Walter Lange, president of the Badger State Athletic association, obtained the east-ern acceptance over the long distance telephone. Wagner, a Philadelphia lightweight, has met and defeated some of the leading 135-pounders in the east. His record includes victories over Tommy O'Brien, Johnny Dundee and Sid Terris, the latter going out in six rounds.

Club had originally planned to use Bortfeld and Kahn as semi-finalists, but the Third warder declined to meet the North Side southpaw. Through his father-manager, Bill demanded a bout with nationally famous opponents.

MENDELSON OFF CARD

The signing of Bortfeld and Wagner means that Johnny Mendelson must delay his comeback, probably until Labor day when the State Fair club will hold its second program. Mitchell and Mickey Walker have been offered the date, but the welter-weight champion demands $50,000 for his second visit to Wisconsin. Jack Kearns in a wire to Fawcett has asked for a definite and immediate reply regarding the Mitchell contest for Sept. 7.

HARMON HAS DAMAGED EYE

Harmon sustained a deep cut over his left eye in the Doyle duel, and the injury handicapped him in the Gal-fund bout. The New Yorker now intends to do only light preparatory work for the Mitchell match, and has agreed to report in Milwaukee one week in advance of the local booking. The junior welterweight champion has collected a corps of sparring mates, among them being Clein, Kahn and Larry Sobelack. Daily workouts are held at the Mitchell open air camp on the upper river.

GOLF As Champions Play It

Your CLUBS When to use them.
MASHIE—for shots up to 150 yards
MIDIRON—for shots up to 180 yards
DRIVING IRON—for shots of accuracy over 180 yards
WOODEN CLUBS—longest shots

How should one go about learning the use of the clubs in his bag?
BY LEO DIEGEL
Canadian, Shawnee, Illinois and Florida open champion.

Knowledge of the distance to be covered by the various clubs and the character of the shot required should be obtained first of all from the club professional. Later, by practice and careful watching of results achieved with the various clubs, the player can decide for himself what club is required to cover a certain distance. Normally, the mashie is used for shots up to 150 yards, the midiron for shots up to 180 yards, the driving iron or cleek for shots exceeding that distance and requiring accuracy, and the wooden clubs for distances greater than the cleek or driving iron can cover. Constant observation of the power of the various clubs is necessary to familiarize the player with their use, and again he should be cautioned not to underclub himself, or to press for greater distance than the club ordinarily calls for.

Eighth Inning Rally Gives Legion 5 To 3 Victory Over Rotary

Staging a two-run rally in the last of the eighth, the Legion Thursday afternoon noted out the Rotary, 5 to 3, and maintained a clean slate in the last league. A double play, Buck to Hilfert, in the sixth pulled Graef out of a bad hole with two men on the base, and fine fielding on both sides kept the score down to a low level. Fumbles by Schabo and several over-throws gave the Rotary several good chances to score, but Kirk managed to pitch himself out of the difficulty every time.

Kirk had six strikeouts to his credit while Graef had four. Cub Joruk starred in the field for the Rotary, with seven putouts and as many assists to his credit. He also crashed out two of the Rotary's six hits. R. McArthur being credited with two also and Sackner and Kahn with the other two.

HIT TWOBAGGERS

Sternard and Schabo each got a two-bagger, but Bates was the heavy hitter of the Legion squad, when he sent out three singles in four times up. Schabo, during the first innings of the game, was unable to hold onto the ball and muffed it four times, thereby giving four Rotarians a safe coast on first base. He recovered himself later, however, and collected four assists and three putouts.

A couple of errors and stolen bases, a passed ball and a fielder's choice gave the Rotarians two runs in the

Y. M. C. A. NET CLASH POSTPONED FOR WEEK

Inability of three of his four netters to take part, has forced A. P. Jensen, athletic director of the Y. M. C. A. here to postpone the trip of his net team to Wausau Saturday. The match probably will be arranged for a week from Saturday. Great interest was displayed in this contest because the Wausau Y. M. C. A. team came here recently and carried off the honors in a tritely match in which Appleton and Oshkosh came out at the short end.

BATTERY ACID BURNS WOMAN IN CAR WRECK

Machine Tips Completely Over
After Crash and Appleton
Woman Is Hurt

Burned by acid from the car battery and injured internally as the result of being thrown violently against the steering wheel in a collision of two automobiles late Wednesday night at Gillingham's corners on Highway 15, Harlow Wickert is in a critical condition at her home, 215-E, Spring-st. Her husband, driver of the car, was bruised slightly and Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Whitmore and three children of Menasha, occupants of the other car, were uninjured.

Mrs. Wickert had one finger cut off, an artery in one of her hands severed and was covered with acid burns. The acid reached her hair with the result that much of it was burned off. She also was bruised from head to foot and suffered numerous glass cuts about her body. The extent of Mrs. Wickert's internal injuries could not be determined Thursday because of severe pains in the abdomen.

The Wickert car was traveling south on the highway about 2 1/2 miles from Neenah when the car driven by Whitmore came out from a side road in the west side of the highway without slowing down and in the collision that followed the Appleton car turned completely over and slid along 30 feet on its top. It slid into the ditch beside the road. Mrs. Wickert was thrown against the steering wheel with such force that the wheel was bent egg-shaped. When the car turned over she fell to the top which was on the roadway and lay there until it halted in the ditch. The battery, which was upended, emptied its contents on her. The Wickert car was completely demolished.

GEBHARDT RADIOCASTS LESSONS IN SWIMMING

H. L. Gebhardt, of the Central department of Chicago Y. M. C. A., a brother of L. D. "Don" Gebhardt, assistant physical director of Appleton Y. M. C. A. for the last three years and recently appointed assistant director of athletics at Lawrence college, has written a series of stories on swimming, diving and lifesaving which are appearing in the Chicago Evening Post. Mr. Gebhardt also is broadcasting a series of ten talks on swimming every Tuesday and Friday evenings at 7:30, Chicago day.

OLD TIME STAR OF SAWDUST RING CROWNS MAY WIRTH AS EMPRESS OF ARENA

"Little Empress of the Arena." That was the title bestowed upon May Wirth, the star equestrienne of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circus by one of her most fervent admirers.

Here is the true story. A little grey-haired old lady, sprightly of manner and quick of step despite her years, traveled over a hundred miles for the purpose of seeing May Wirth in her dashing bareback act, while the "greatest show on earth" was exhibiting at Madison Square Garden, New York.

"I was once a star of the arena myself," explained the little old lady with a glint of professional pride in her eyes. "I was then known as Mlle. Elvira when my husband, Richard Hemmings, owned his own show, the Hemmings and Whiby circus, and we traveled overland by wagon, from town to town, from hamlet to city. One summer we voyaged up and down the Hudson River, carrying all our equipment and horses by boat and showing at all the towns on both sides of the river."

"Well," continued Mrs. Hemmings, "I just had to see May Wirth ride. I'd heard she was the greatest in her line today and all I have to say is, I think she is superior to Madame Dockrill, Senora Cordona, Mollie Brown and all who were famous in my time. I think May Wirth ought to be crowned 'Little Empress of the Arena.' That's what she is!"

More than seventy famous riders have been enrolled with the big show this present season. American and European celebrities like the Rieffenschneider Sisters, the Ernestos, Mme. Ella Bradna, the Wirth family, the Clarks and George Hannaford will all be seen here in equestrian displays, Wednesday, July 29th.

light time, from WEBB, the Post station at Edgewater Beach hotel.

Mr. Gebhardt, who is a "Y" physical director in Chicago, has been broadcasting morning exercises from WMAQ and has received many compliments on his work. Many Appleton people have risen earlier in the morning to take his directions. Recently when Brother Don visited Chicago, he was given his first opportunity to broadcast to the waiting "exercisers."

It Started Something

"Your medicine is the talk of the town since pulling me from the grave. I have told dozens about it and I know of at least ten who are now taking May's Wonderful Remedy, all with good results. I never saw anything like it. One man who had been operated on for gall stones and had them come back, took it and says his symptoms are all gone now and he swears he is cured." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. At all druggists. adv.

The FLAPPER WIFE

by Beatrice Burton

An automobile whizzed by on the pavement. But Glory didn't hear it. The world for her, at that moment, was bounded by the rough fabric of Stan's coat, as it brushed her cheek by the hard ring of his arms that held her close. "If he loves me the way I love him, he'll want me to leave Dick," she thought to herself. But did Stan want her to leave Dick? Did he care for her as she did for him? Did he want her for forever or for just the passing moment's thrill? Glory wondered. She never had been sure of Wayburn as she had been sure of Dick. She never had trusted him. And yet there was no one else in the world who was thrilling to her as Stanley Wayburn was thrilling. "Here comes a car, Russel. We'd better drive on," Stan said suddenly in a matter-of-fact voice. "There's a farm-house along here on this road where we can stop for some tea." If you'd like it.

Glory straightened her hat, and started the car. "I would," she said with a briskness that matched his own. "I had no lunch and I'm famished." The farm house was a low-eaved brown one. A copper kettle hung beside its green front door. Within they sat at a little table before an open fire.

The plump blond woman who kept the tea-house, bustled about in the kitchen that could be seen through the open doorway. Presently there was a smell of browning toast, and of fragrant tea.

Stan leaned across the table. He pulled Glory's doekin gloves off, and held her cold hands in his. He said nothing. He seemed only to want to look at her. His eyes were eager as if he were filling them with her beauty. So that he could remember it, afterward.

Glory knew that she was pretty that day. The wind had made her eyes and cheeks glow. And more over she was wearing her new clothes. . . . the clothes she had bought with Dick's money so that she should be beautiful for Stan's eyes.

"I'm a bad wife," she said in an undertone. "I've no business to be here with you, Stanley, when I've a husband of my own."

Wayburn laughed a little. He pressed her hand, so that it seemed that the little bones in them would snap.

"Don't talk about husbands. Let's not waste our time when we're together talking about anything but you . . . and me," he said. "Do you know that your hair is the nicest color . . . like beech leaves with the sun on 'em?"

"And what color is Myra Gail's hair?" Glory asked bitterly.

"Don't remember," Stan answered glly. "You're a jealous little cat, aren't you, Russel?"

Glory frowned.

"I am. I admit it," she said. "You quite spoiled my dinner the other night when I saw you in that restaurant with that Chotek woman!"

Stan smiled.

"Sonya Chotek, a very capable actress," he commented. "She's had a most interesting career. She was imprisoned in Russia for a year at the beginning of the war. . . ."

"I wish she were there, now!" Glory cried. "I wish they'd never freed her!"

"They didn't free her. She escaped," Stanley went on, his eyes twinkling with amusement. "Then she went to France. . . ."

"Oh, will you be still about her! I don't want to know anything about the women you're in love with or have been in love with!" Glory cried.

The farm woman brought in their tea.

"Cream?" Glory asked.

"No, thanks."

"Sugar?"

"One lump, please."

"I love to pour your tea," Glory said when the woman had again disappeared into the kitchen. "I love to do little homey things for you."

Wayburn took one of her hands again.

"Intending that we're married, you and I?" he asked.

Glory nodded. She couldn't trust her voice. "It would be nice," Stan's tone was flat.

Glory knew that he didn't mean it. And yet, somehow, she hoped with all her soul that he did mean it!

They finished their tea and toast. And the farm woman laid the bill on the table.

Glory took out her tiny mirror and powder box and dusted her nose. She buttoned her fur coat close about her neck, and drew on her gloves.

Stan leaned across the table. "I'm in a deuce of a fix," he said in a low tone. "I've forgotten my bill-fold. I must have left it on my dresser at the hotel. . . . Will you lend me a couple of dollars to pay the check?"

"Why, of course," Glory replied eagerly.

In her new headed bag was a five dollar bill that Dick had given her to buy gasoline, that morning. She passed it across the table to Stanley. When the change came Stanley absently stuffed it into his trousers pocket.

"When he gets back to the hotel, and discovers that he forgot to give me my change, he'll have a fit," Glory laughed to herself.

Outside the clear afternoon light had faded a little. The fields lay brown and barren under the bleak sky.

Glory felt a little melancholy as she turned her car toward the city. She hated the thought of leaving Stan. . . . of going home to Dick, and the dull evening.

"Isn't this matinee day?" Glory asked. "Why, of course it is! Why aren't you at the theater, giving the matinee girls a thrill?"

"The company's gone bloomy," Wayburn said. "It disbanded last Saturday. That's what amused me so back there, when you were raving about Sonya Chotek. She left town Sunday. I'll probably never see her again."

Glory laughed.

"And Myra Gail leaves for Europe soon. . . . she and her husband!" she said. "So that both of my deadly rivals will be gone. . . . and I'll have you all to myself!"

"Will you like that?" Stanley asked. "I thought all women enjoyed being jealous."

"Enjoy being jealous," Glory repeated.

It seemed to her at the moment that the thing she would most enjoy in the world would be to know that Stanley Wayburn was blind when it came to seeing other women. . . . to know that she would never have to be jealous of him again!

"Get over on your side of the road. . . . a car's trying to pass us!" Stanley said, looking back over his shoulder. Glory nosed in toward the right-hand side of the road.

In the car was a woman, alone. She looked sharply into Glory's car, as she passed it.

Mother Gregory!

Glory almost ran the car off the road into the muddy ditch beside it, as her eyes met those of Dick's mother.

"Hot bozo!" she cried. Dismay was in her voice.

"What's the matter now?" Stan asked.

"Oh, nothing much. . . . except that that was my husband's mother who passed us just now in that car!" Glory answered.

"Did she see you? Are you sure?" Stan asked.

Glory laughed mirthlessly.

"I'll say she saw me! And you, too! She looked daggers at us both!"

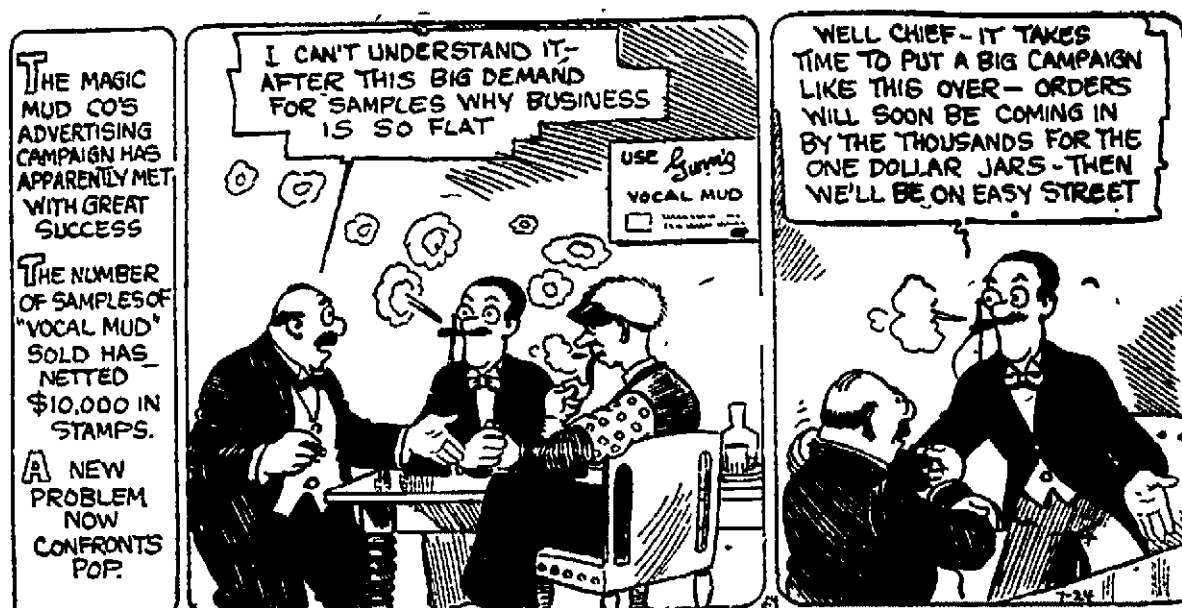

"Oh, what will I do?" Stanley pondered.

"Tell the truth," he suggested. "After all, what did we do that was wrong? . . . You happened to meet me out on this road. You didn't know I was here. It was just a chance meeting. . . . tell your husband all about it the minute you get home!"

Swindler Taken to Court When Lumber Company Discovers Another Bogus Check

Smith appeared before Justice O. B. Baldwin Thursday afternoon and waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to appear in Municipal court at 10 o'clock Friday morning. And at Voecks Bros. It Is Quality First Every business house at its inception, has at least one set policy, by which they hope to attract patronage.

Some of them set a policy of price. This policy encourages them to buy the cheapest merchandise, so that they may offer it to the public at a low price.

Others have one of quality. This, they adhere to regardless of price. No matter how attractively inferior merchandise may be priced, it does not appeal to these houses.

Voecks Bros. policy is one of quality. No matter what the price may be Voecks Bros. sell only the Finest of Meats.

PURE DAIRY PRODUCTS

ARE YOU SURE

of the quality of the milk which comes to your table? Is it pasteurized? If so, is it done conscientiously? When buying our milk you have the assurance that the pasteurization is properly and adequately done. The milk is heated to the point at which the harmful bacteria are killed, but is not superheated, or "cooked." This accounts for the fact that our milk has a "different" taste.

At The Other End Of The Wire

Courtesy is the one stock that all businesses have to carry. You'll find that the Post-Crescent's Classified Department has plenty of it on hand.

The ad taker who will answer your call has been trained to help you with the wording of your advertisement—for a cook, or a house for rent, or of some furniture for sale. She may suggest a change here and there—you may have put in a fact that is unnecessary or left out one that should be included.

But you will never be allowed to lose sight of the fact that she is there to make it easier for you to get the most satisfactory result from your ad in the shortest possible time. That's the business of Post-Crescent ad takers!

We know that pleasant service goes twice as far as just plain service. We know that you appreciate the value of a voice with a smile. We know that you like to deal with agreeable people.

Next time you have a job that a little ad can do—call 543 and ask for an ad taker.

MEET TONIGHT TO TALK
OVER FARMER FESTIVAL

Decision as to whether Outgame-co will have a farm festival this year will be made at a meeting of the county farm festival committee Friday evening at the office of R. A.
Amundson, county agricultural agent.
If the decision is favorable plans will be started immediately for the affair.
Plans were started at a previous meeting of the group but it was decided to take a census of the opinion of farmers of the county before anything is done. Definite statements on the opinions of various sections of the county will be read at the meeting.

Just think, a 35c box of P. D. Q.
(Pesky Devils Queller), makes a quart, enough to kill a million bedbugs, roaches, fleas or moths and stops future generation by killing the eggs and does not injure the clothing.
Liquid fire to the bedbugs is what
P. D. Q. is like. Bedbugs stand as good a chance as a snowball in a justly famed heat resort. Patent spot free

GIRLS DROWN AS
CANOE CAPSIZES

Three Young Women Lose Lives and Fourth Is Rescued at Chain of Lakes

ing her until a woman cottager who saw the tragedy and started out on a boat, could be reached. Bernice, at most completely exhausted, was put into the boat and Bushey, tired from his exertion, started back to the other girls. He almost Reached Rosella, still floundering, when she went down the third time. Bushey dived several times but couldn't reach bottom and

GILL TRIES HARD
Young Gill, slight for his age, made a valiant effort to save Rosella. He grasped her, but her frantic clutches overpowered him and he went down with her. He fought himself free and tried again to save the girl, but again she dragged him under and finally, to save his own life, he was forced to free himself and swim for shore. He was nearly exhausted when he reached shallow water. The other girls sank out of sight a few seconds after the canoe capsized.

Young Bushey, whose parents live in Appleton until a few years ago, recently passed Boy Scout life saving tests and it was his ability as a swimmer, gained from his Boy Scout training, that Miss Kuehl owes her life. Gill, also a Boy Scout and an excellent swimmer, was not strong enough to save Miss Rosella. She could much larger than he and he could not control her. Miss Bernice, also not control her. Bushey's methodical method and while she fought desperately Bushey was able to guide her to safety.

IN CAMP TWO WEEKS
The young women, all employed here, went to Sunset cottage, on Lake McCrossen, two weeks ago. They had intended to break camp last week but decided to remain until Saturday.
Thursday was the second time they had been out in the canoe. They had been using a row boat every-day and were accustomed to move about in it without fear. It is believed their confidence in the rowboat made them less cautious in the frail craft.

The beach in front of the girls' cottage is quite shallow for about 75 feet, then it abruptly drops off to a depth of about 40 feet. There is 70 feet of water in the deepest part of the lake.
The girls, it is believed, did not realize they had reached the deep water when they tipped their canoe and had no fear of not being able to reach bottom.

HAPPENED QUICKLY

"It happened so quickly that I really cannot tell just what caused it," Miss Kuehl said Friday morning. "I was paddling in the front end of the canoe and had my back to the girls.
Just a few minutes before the accident the girls were tipping the canoe to see how far it would go over without capsizing and they might have been doing that again when it tipped over. I was thrown backward into the water and I saw the girls floundering around. I could swim a little but I was pulled down when one of the other girls grasped me around the waist and legs. I fought her off and a few seconds later Mr. Bushey reached me. He talked to me, telling me not to fight him and to paddle and kick. I clutched at him but he held me off and finally got me to a boat which a lady was rowing out to us.
I saw Mr. Bushey start back to the other girls and then I was taken to the cottage and placed in bed."

The six young women in the camping party were firm friends. Esther, Viola, Lucille and Lydia were employed at the F. W. Woolworth and Co. store; Rosella worked for the Van Gorp bakery and Bernice is employed by the Wisconsin Telephone Co.

Parents of the girls were notified as quickly as possible and left at once for Waupaca. The bodies were taken for an undertaking establishment and then conveyed to Appleton. The Misses Kuehl, Treiber and Kasten also returned Thursday evening. Miss Kuehl has recovered almost entirely from her experience but still is very nervous. Miss Treiber was almost in a state of collapse after the tragedy, it was said, and Miss Kasten was distraught.

Funerals of the three young ladies will be held Monday afternoon. The double funeral service for the Helms sisters is to be held at 1:30 at the Lutheran church in the town of Center. Burial will be in Riverside.

The Rev. A. H. Werner will be in charge of the last service for Miss Reinke which will be held at 1:30 at her parents' home and at 2:30 at the Lutheran church in the town of Center. Burial will be in Riverside.

The Misses Helms are survived by their parents and five brothers, Ervin, Harvey, Harold, Elmer and Robert,
all at home. Miss Reinke's survivors are her parents, one sister, Laura, three brothers, Harvey, Harold and Orville, and her grandmother, Mrs.
Charles Reinke.

SELECT TEXTS FOR PUPILS IN JUNIOR SCHOOLS

Principal Nearly Finished
With Task of Picking Study
Books

Text mbooks for most of the studies in the new junior high schools have been selected according to E. J. Rohan, superintendent of schools. The only courses for which text books have not been determined are practical arts and science.

For the junior high school English courses the book to be used for the seventh and eighth grades is "Highway to English" by Ward and Moffet. In the ninth grade "High School English" by Alfred M. Hitchcock will be used.

In the literature courses the text used in the seventh grade will be "Reading and Living" by Lyman and Hall, while the eighth and ninth grades will use the "Guide Book to English Literature" by Engleman and McTurnan. Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice" also will be read in the ninth grade literature courses.

For the mathematics courses Shoreline and Clarke's books of "Modern Mathematics" will be used throughout the entire junior high school course.

Seventh grade social science students will study "Story of Human Progress" by Marshall. "American History" by Woodburn and Moran will be the text for eighth grade social science students, and ninth grade social science pupils will study Hughes' "Economic Civics" for seven months and follow this with a study of "Elementary Business Training" by Carlin and Haynes.

Only one text book has been decided upon for a practical arts course and this is for a course in journalism. "News Writing" by Borah will be the text used in this course, although it has not been definitely decided in what year of the high school curriculum to place the course in journalism.
